SUMMARY OF NEWS.

FOREIGN. The British settlements in S. Africa, for the settlement of liberated negroes are flourishing. The French vessels engaged in the trade are still numerous; but the French commodore, recently appointed on that station, is said to be a friend of humanity, and active in the cause of manumission. If he has sufficient au thority, it is hoped his efforts will be highly beneficial -Gibraltar papers confirm the accounts bettere re ceived from Paris, of the defeat and discomfiture of several divisions of the army of the faith, and of their retreat into France. It is added, that when they are rived in France. It is added, that when the rived in France, they were disarmed, but protected.—

"It does not appear that the Cortes of Spain had received any information of the decisions of the Verona Congress on their affairs; but their officers and agents continued to denounce and arrest the clergy, as hostile to the system; ato lay all disaffected parts of the kingdom under heavy contributions, and to declare all the districts in insurrection under martial law. all the districts in insurrection under martial law. Several bands of insurgents continued in arms, and were harrassed by the constitutional troops.—A new steam vessel, with great improvements, is fitting out in London for Calcutta, invented by Mr. Perkins, an American. It is calculated the voyage may be perceived in 40 days.—A dispattons cale has occurred formed in 40 days.—A disastrons gale has occurred at Laguira. 8 American vessels were lost, and a number of lives. 8 or 10 vessels of other nations were lost. The U. S. frigate Congress rode out the gale, with the loss of two anchors. Another account states the number of vessels driven on shore to be 28; most of which were totally lost; and that about 100 persons perished .- It is now said that Morales has not lost Maracaibo; but has marched against General Clementi with 2000 men, leaving 1000 in the city. It is also said that several generals are waiting for him in as many different directions, and that he cannot escape; while Gen. Bolivar is menacing Maracaibo, to whom it will probably fall a prey.—The new constitution of Portugal was adopted at the island of St. Michael's about the 30th of December, with great rejoicings.—The governor ad interim of the province of Coro writes, Dec. 24, that the peninsula of Paraguana is pacified.
